

Dear Parents/Carers

World Book day is on Thursday 1st March this year and we will be celebrating by having a 'stay and read' in the hall; then listening to, reading and writing our own stories. The FPTA have also organised a Where's Wally hunt on the day for the children, with prizes. To help add to the celebrations, we would like children to come in dressed in fancy dress. This year we have chosen the theme of 'Where's Wally?' Below are some of the characters that you could come dressed as:

The Travelling Books (Book Fair) will also be returning this year from Monday 19th March and staying all week.

Kind Regards

Miss Kirkby
